Acts 16:16-34: Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune-telling.¹⁷ This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation."¹⁸ And this she did for many days. But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour.¹⁹ But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.²⁰ And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly trouble our city;²¹ "and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe."²² Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes and commanded them to be beaten with rods.²³ And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely.²⁴ Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.²⁶ Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.²⁷ And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself.²⁸ But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here."²⁹ Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.³⁰ And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"³¹ So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."³² Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.³³ And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized.³⁴ Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Small Group Interaction:

1. What strikes you most about Paul and Silas' attitude through this whole experience?
2. Have you ever known someone to come to Christ who eventually affected their entire family or household? If so, what happened?
3. What are some questions you might ask someone to get them to open up and share their beliefs with you?
4. If you were talking to someone about the Lord, and they said one of the following, how would you respond?
 - I've done too many bad things for God to love me.
 - All Christians are hypocrites.
 - I'm not ready to come to God yet.
 - I've been hurt by the church or by other Christians.
 - It doesn't make sense to believe in God.
